

TRAVEL COSTS FUNDING FOR PHD STUDENTS

The Organizing Committee of the 23rd Common Core of European Private Law will grant a funding aid for covering the travel costs of a limited number of motivated young researchers who wish to take part to the event.

Applicants need to send a .pdf document named Surname_Funding containing:

- Name and Surname.
- E-mail address.
- Name of home university or research institute and year of enrollment.
- List of publications (if any).
- A motivation letter of maximum 500 words stating i) the research interests of the candidate, ii) the reason he would like to attend the Common Core of European Private Law, iii) the specific group (tort, property etc.) the candidate wishes to join.

Applications shall be sent within the 15.6.2017 at the following e-mail address alessandra.quarta@unito.it

Successful applicants will be informed by the committee within 20.6.2017

Applications can be written in English or Italian.